THE CHAIN GANG.—A gentleman living in the Third ward called at this office today to suggest that the chain office today in the great and gang be furnished with ice cream and sods water instead of ice water during the heated term. He says the gang is now composed of two men who have an overseer and a water carrier; that the overseer seeks the shade of the trees to direct their work; that the gang also keeps in the shade as much as possible and that the water carrier has but little to do. He estimates that it has cost the city nearly $40 to pull grass on Washington street half way from Queen

SUIT DECIDED .- The Court of Appeals in Washington yesterday afterpeals in Washington yesterday afternoon handed down an opinion in the case of George W. Manogue, appellant, against Herbert Bryant, of this city. The decree of the lower court is affirmed, with costs. The opinion was written by Justice Shepard. The appeal was from a decree correcting the description of certain premises contained in a morn of certain premises contained in a mortgage, and enjoining the sale of the part of the lot embraced in the correction, under an execution against the mortgagors and is in favor of Capt. Bryant.

> APPLICATION FOR PARDON .- An application will be made to Gov. Tyler to pardon Joseph Clark, convicted of an attempt to commit rape and sentenced on February 10 1897, to serve nine years in the penitentiary. The application will be signed by all the members of the jury who tried Clark and a number of prominent merchants of this community. > LIVED NINE DAYS IN A GRAVE .- Harry Beno awoke from his sleep of nine days on Sunday and walked out of his living grave at Chicago. His first act was to eat a dainty meal of chicken broth, boiled eggs and crackers, after which he declared that he was feeling well. Beno is the man who has driven files and awis into his head and hung chairs on them; who has eaten arsenic and smoked a cigar for dessert. Beno was not under ground during the entire eight days, as the grave in which he was buried became flooded during the heavy rains. He was not removed from the ceffin, but the box was taken out of the earth on Wednesday and a platform put under it. When he was released from the coffin he mounted a platform and told the story of his life to a crowd of 3 000 people. Beno will go to Cleveland, where he says he will remain buried for forty days.
